

Attachment-friendly practices

Tier 1 universal interventions

IN THE CLASSROOM

- Warm morning greeting (and after every transition)
- Showing genuine interest in students (know them by name, remember something they've shared with you)
- Collecting students and engaging their attachment instincts prior to giving instruction
- Preferential seating for certain students (being in close proximity to the adult)
- Designated area in the classroom